

* All the processes related to supply and use of energy and water are omitted from this flow chart.
 * The "sales process (store)" in the distribution stage is provisionally excluded from the assessment until its proper calculation method is finally established.
 * This flow chart shows a life cycle of general seasoning product. When calculating CFP of specific product, select the processes actually used, such as by eliminating unnecessary process.

